

RelatedDataFilter

Available in version v4+

The object for filtering related data. If provided, only records with matching values for all columns and value pairs are selected.

Name	Type	Description	Constraints
datasetName	String	Name of the related data set. All related data records reside within a data set identified by a unique name.	required key	String	Key defining which record(s) to select from the data set.	required
filter	Attribute	An optional list of name, value pair	required